KIAWAH SHOPPING GUIDE

Clubs? Check. Capris? Check. Cabernet Sauvignon? Check.

The Straw Market Shops

Begin your day with coffee and a newspaper. The Straw Market Shops in East Beach Village hosts an array of dining and shopping options. Shop for island resort apparel, outdoor adventure clothing and gear, pool and beach items, as well as signature Kiawah Island merchandise and gifts. (Note: The East Beach Market also offers snacks, sundries and movie rentals.)

The Market at Town Center

Located in East Beach Village, The Market at Town Center is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Here you'll find grocery items, beer and wine, cigars, newspapers and gifts. Enjoy wireless Internet service.

The Sanctuary

This lobby-level promenade at The Sanctuary features a variety of fine boutiques that specialize in elegant women's apparel, gourmet foods and gifts, fine art, and other signature resort merchandise. You can also reserve a tee time while shopping for designer golf apparel at the Kiawah Golf Shop, located here.

Loggerhead Grill

With the Atlantic Ocean and The Sanctuary's spectacular pool as your backdrop, enjoy gourmet sandwiches, burgers, salads and wraps, frozen drinks and cocktails. The Loggerhead Grill offers lunch and dinner. Open between Memorial Day and Labor Day.

Freshfields Village

Located near the entrance to Kiawah Island, Freshfields Village is a charming collection of boutiques, retail shops and restaurants at the crossroads of Kiawah, Seabrook and Johns Islands. The Village also is home to Newton Farms, an upscale, full-service grocery store with a spectacular array of fresh produce, meats and gourmet foods plus wines and other spirits from all over the world.
